

Dear Chairman Powell,

Please do not loosen the rules for media ownership on Monday June 2. I believe that we are already experiencing negative consequences of media consolidations over the last two decades. I find the enabling of further media consolidation to be counter to the public interest. I have heard no convincing counter argumaent that makes me believe this is good public policy. Thank you for allowing me to comment. William Schaub